

Eligibility to appear for backlog examination starting from 2nd December to 15th December 2020 (Referring to Circular No. DBoEE/ICC/2020-21/13 dt. 4 November, 2020, regarding backlog examinations to be conducted before 15 December, 2020)

1. Students those who appeared for examination held in the month of either November/December, 2019 or prior and failed in some of the subjects/courses and couldn't get their due chance of appearing for examinations to be held in May/June, 2020 due to Covid-19 pandemic situation, are only eligible for appearing for special examination to be held from 2nd December, 2020. (i.e. The students who were failed in the subjects/courses of semester I to VI examinations conducted up to November/December 2019 and those who have already filled up the examination form for May/June 2020 examination are eligible to appear for this examination).
2. The students who were studying in Semester II, IV, VI in AY 19-20 in second half and their results were processed and declared by using 50 % weightage for internal assessment and 50% weightage for performance of earlier semester (as per University Circular संपवमूमं/२०२०-२१ /४ दिनांक २२ मे, २०२०) are not eligible to appear for this examination.